Autumn in the Western Basin Toledo Region Brings Beautiful Color and a New President For America

by Arnold Sutter

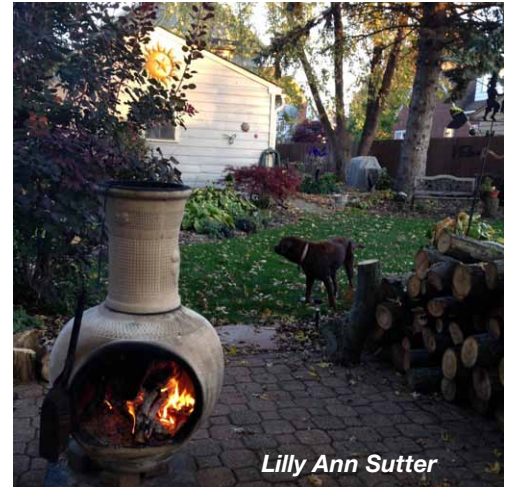

Survival in the last 5 years has been based on hard work, cooperation with other small businesses, and a determination to stay focused on highlighting the best in our region. We continue our support of the Small Business Revolution.

GenoaBank is one of those businesses, with a mission statement of serving local and community interests in Northwestern Ohio. We thank them for being our cover story in Volume 46. We also thank all our dedicated businesses who supported them.

Thanks to our team of professionals! Bob Younker, as my assistant publisher, along with Melissa Barber-Bilby, our graphic and web designer, Warren DeWitt, our Building of History writer, and Muir Graphics. We have a very empathetic staff creating what we think is a quality media tool for small businesses in the Western Basin Toledo region.

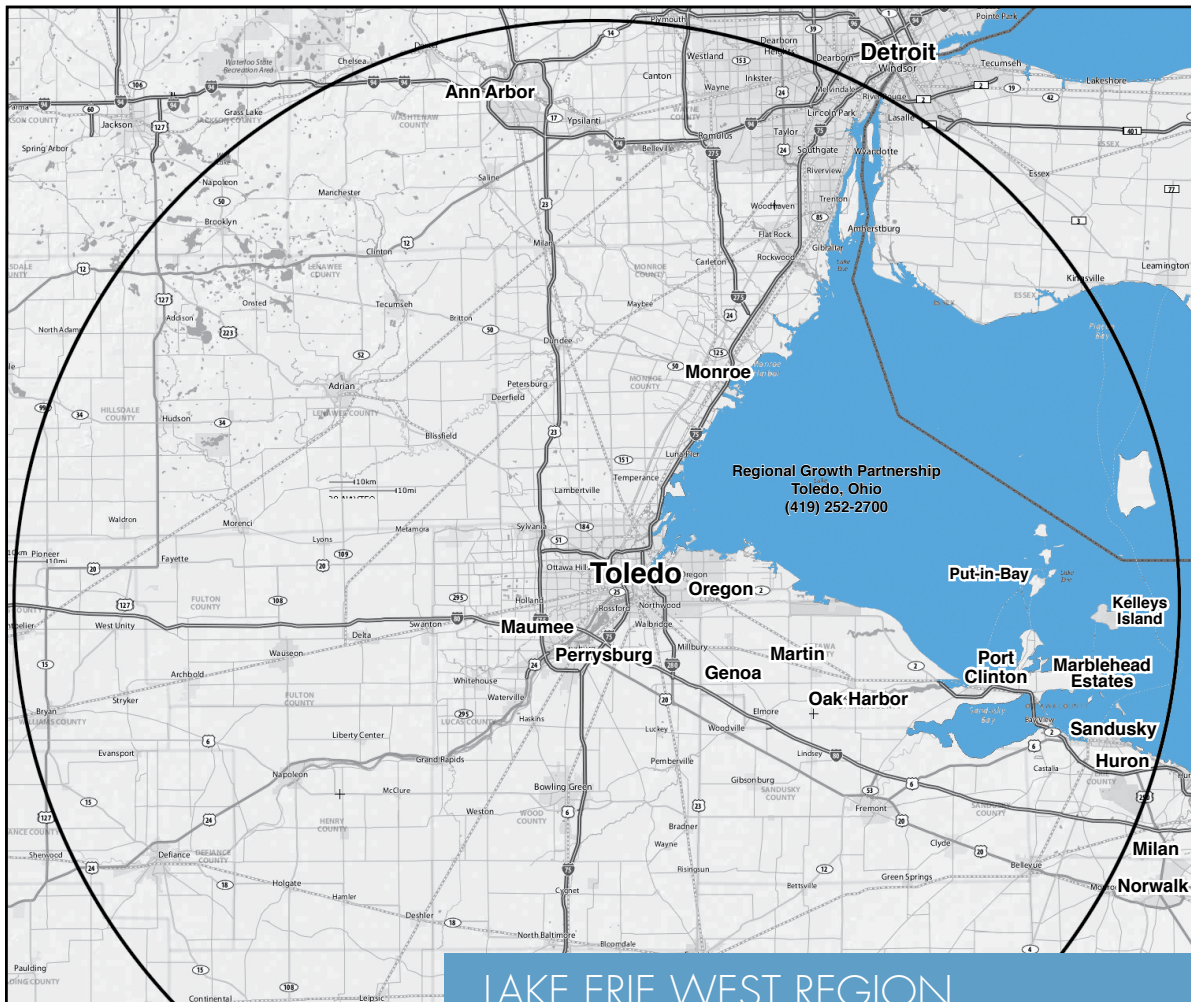

We are proud to feature Wayne Homes for the third time in five years! They are one of our most successful builders in our region. I believe we have found a valuable client who obviously knows how to use our media tool. They have given a testimony to "our high quality publication which provides a great third party endorsement of their work."

Enjoy the Christmas season and God's beauty of late Fall!!

Georgio's International Cafe

Cheers to Another 30 Years and More to Come

I have seen my share of restaurants come and go during my short lifetime and no doubt, will continue to see small businesses start up only to go out of business within 3 years time or less. You try out a new restaurant for a couple of years, they might become your favorite then you get word that your favorite restaurant, that you came to love, will be closing and a little piece of you dies inside. It's like dating all over again, you just have to get out there and find a new favorite restaurant.

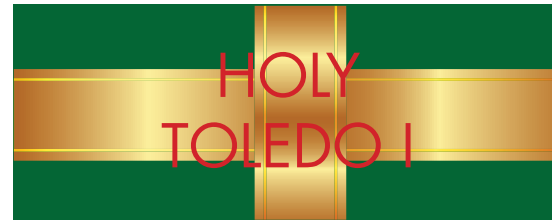

Well, my friends, I have good news for you! You will never have to fret about Georgio's International Cafe going away for anytime soon! This year marks their thirtieth birthday for the two brothers of Georgio's, George and Chris. The quality of their entrees and the efficient, friendly professionalism of the staff is still as excellent as when I first reviewed them over three years ago. Quality never wavers when it comes to them! That is a testament to the Kamilaris family, notably chef George Kamilaris, co-owner Chris Kamilaris, Sous Chef, Cary Foster, and various relatives for whom the quality of Georgio's meals are taken personally.

The Kamilaris family is from Cyprus, refugees from a very troubled region nearly 40 years ago. They came to the United States to share their heritage and food with us. What good food it is too! They do not like to say, "We do not have that on our menu." They will do their best to have what you want especially if you call in and make a reservation. Chef George and Sous Chef, Cary Foster, George's assistant, will make it their number one priority to satisfy even the pickiest of eaters, especially me. From their delicious beef stroganoff to Georgio's veal tender fillets to my favorite, lasagna, there's something for everybody. All of the meals come with rice and steamed vegetables that are expertly prepared and they only use the freshest of ingredients.

Georgio's has always been consistent in preparing mouth-watering, delicious entrees that they have acquired some regulars over the years. Cecil and Liz Adkins from Walbridge, Ohio have been going to Georgio's at least once a month for 30 years. Georgio's has definitely become their favorite restaurant and it will become yours too once you taste their desserts! Georgio's staff makes all of their desserts. They have an authentic New York-styled cheesecake, lemon mousse

by Melissa Barber-Bilby

layer cake, and let's not forget, the seven-layer chocolate mousse cake that I absolutely love! As I stated before, it's basically heaven in a chocolate cake form!

With 30 years comes new changes and additions like their new bar area that was built by Rudolph Libbe but I can assure you that their food and service quality will never change, they'll only get better. I think that one of the great qualities of Georgio's is its ambiance. The restaurant is dark without being gloomy making it an ideal place to take your love one on a romantic date out to eat and maybe catch a show at the Valentine Theatre.

I can truly say that they will still be serving great, authentic food for many generations to come! Happy 30th Anniversary Georgio's International Cafe!! Please go visit them at 426 North Superior Street in Toledo, Ohio. You too might even become a regular!

Coach David Hurst

Football Finds Fundamentals of Life

by Arnold Sutter

God tends to put people in your life that you can learn core values for your profession, your enjoyment, and life skills. It is with great honor that I dedicate these few words of wisdom from Coach David Hurst. He is enjoying his twilight years with his daughter in Lexington, Kentucky.

Yes, Coach Hurst is not a Western Basin Toledo native, but he gave me many "Hillbilly" values that I will truthfully cherish as a coach, teacher, and now a writer. He, by the way, was all three—a coach, teacher, and writer. He loved poetry (read to his team as pre-game talks), taught school for 30 years, and wrote a book called "Maze Blocking", which many colleges and high schools used in the 1970's.

Now, Coach Hurst has written a reflection of his life, in the form of a Trilogy. It is called "War Touched Me Now". The following is an excerpt from the book:

War touched me again today, but once again it was just another glancing blow. This time, however, I hurt and I can't tell myself just where my body and mind ache. I teared up at the sight of the dirty little girl survivor of a terrorist blast somewhere.

I rub my neck when I see a child soldier beheaded by a Syrian soldier. My stomach cringes when an Army major, wearing the same uniform that I have worn, yells Allah Akbar before murdering 13 soldiers and wounding 32 others on - of all places - an Army post.

I ran away from a kitchen television at the sight of orange clad Kurds kneeling before their masked executioners and I wonder about my own humanity.

He talked with a little "southern drawl" but you knew he meant every word he spoke. You can read the rest of his work at www.wartouchedme.com. I am sure you will appreciate his Greatest Generation perspective of war and life in the 21st Century.

Happy Hooker Outdoors has thrived on route to the South Shores of Lake Erie in Oak Harbor for many years under the direction of Captain Dave O'Neal, a retired charter boat captain, and his lovely wife Carolyn. In October of 2015 they closed their doors for the season and ownership was transferred to Bud and Patty. Bud has nearly 40 years' experience fishing Lake Erie's western basin as an angler and countless outdoor adventures around North America. He and Patty (the boss) have grand visions for growing the brand and serving local sportsmen as your full service outfitter of choice, offering the best equipment, pricing, and support for all your outdoor adventures.

Two Families... Two Countries... Two Friends...

Two Italian families immigrated to this country in search of a better life, Alexander Scagnetti from Codroipo in Northern Italy in 1904 and Michele Sortino from Modica, Sicily in 1952. These men never knew each other, but their families would meet and form a lasting friendship based on mutual respect and an entrepreneurial spirit. George Sortino, son of Michele, and Lynn Middleswarth, husband to Alexander Scagnetti's granddaughter, have created a strong bond over the years and both share a love of cooking.

THE BUILDING OF HISTORY I

by Arnold Sutter

I say those words (above) with all the respect that I would give my grandfather, Wallace C. Dunn. They came from the same stock of hardworking small businessmen in Ottawa County. Richard Harmeyer was an Ottawa County farm boy growing up just west of Genoa, Ohio on Route 163. When he was 10 years old, his father gave him a Holstein calf for his first business operation. This is not uncommon, many young men and women who live on a farm begin raising animals in the Ohio FFA programs and for the county fairs in northwest Ohio. The long line of small businesses began in the middle 1950's for the son of Otto and Juanita Harmeyer!

Richard Harmeyer

A Self-Made Businessman Who Tinkered in Just About Everything

Reality of business came to Richard at 12 years of age when working after school on his parent's two farms picking tomatoes, harvesting beans, corn, and herding Holstein calves that he experienced bankruptcy. He turned to bailing hay, working for his father, learning what hard work and determination could reap. He enjoyed 3 children with his first wife, Mary. Steve, John, and Beth continue working some of the businesses Richard created or work in a business of their own.

In the 1950's, Richard along with some of his close friends, created a heavy machine construction business. Building the Ohio and Indiana turnpike's infrastructure, gave him valuable experience managing people and heavy equipment. By 1964, Harmeyer Construction Company was one of the largest in the Western Basin Toledo Region. Oil well drilling became popular in the mid 1970's and Richard drilled close to 100 wells in the region, especially around the Van Wert, Ohio area. A recession hit the region in 1979, and with the Reagan administration and the purchasing of Middle East Oil, the "Oil Boom" came to a crashing halt, $45 per barrel in the late 70's to only $10 in the mid 80's.

A few years in the scrap metal business (very successful by the way) and the hazardous waste business, gave Richard Harmeyer his fill of business ventures. Being a strong member of St. John Lutheran Church, he and Lenore (his wife of 42 years) decided to retire on his beautiful farm on Helwig Road, just northwest of Genoa. There he enjoys his twilight years of life with his extended family of ten. He is determined to beat his stage 4 cancer that he has and make sure his family is taken care of!! Richard is just another man amongst the great small businessmen of the Western Basin Toledo Region, specifically, Ottawa County.

The well-built life.

Venturing out into the cold isn't so bad when you have a warm fireplace to come back to. A mudroom for shedding wet clothes. And a gourmet kitchen that smells of fresh-baked cookies.

At Wayne Homes, we're happy to say, the home you've always imagined is more attainable than you ever thought. And winter is more wonderful than ever – so let it snow, let it snow, let it snow.
